

„A Nod And A Wink“

Goodnight
Tired little eyes
Time to climb the wooden hill

Sleep tight
Safe in the night
Wander through your dreams at will

The stars are awake
And blinking their silvery tears on the moon
Don't be afraid
For carpets of magic can fly through the sky
It will take you wherever you wish
But come back to me
The same way that you leave
In day or night, in dark or light
Just come back to me
The same way that you leave
Then you can always find me in your dreams
