

„City Life“

Wake-up
Wake-up, wake-up
Signs tell the time
You're wasting

Wake up
Wake-up, wake-up
Life you will find
Is changing

O the city life
Endless confusion
Hanging on too tight
To this illusion...

I'm not what I appear to be
I couldn't take the honesty
It seemed to be...
Too easy for reality

O the city life
What have I come to?
Faces in the night
Friendly to fool you

I always try to justify
The way I am and wonder why
I couldn't be...
The same to you I am to me
