

„A Heart's Desire“

The light is fading
The cause invading
All the hopes that you were building
On tomorrow
Now you must go

So stretch your wings
As nature sings
Her farewell lullabye to soothe you
Through the changes
When you must go

The gift is knowing
Your strength in going
When the time has gone beyond
Your heart's desire
And you must go
